FOUNDERS DAY-2019

The College held the Annual Founders' Day on 16 February, 2019, and Air Chief Marshal Mujahid Anwar Khan, NI (M), Chief of the Air Staff, an illustrious alumnus, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

The PAF Band played National Anthem at the arrival of the Chief Guest at the College Parade Square, the venue of the Founders' Day function. Proceedings of the day took off with Guard of Honour by the outgoing 47th Entry. Their confident bearing, calculated moves and synchronized response as one body to the command of Azhar Jamil Azhari (3500-Y), College Head Boy, reflected the quality of training gained during a period of their five year stay at the College. Syed Agha Hurr (3496-Ad) and Muhammad Ahsan (3465-R) were the flight commanders. The guard orderlies were Asim Hayat (3475-A) and Haseeb ur Rehman (3507-I). The reception orderlies were Umair Mirza (928-M) and Jahangir Nazar (3403-Y). The markers of the first and second flights were Zohaib Mustafa (3482-R) and Muhammad Subhan (3512-R), respectively. The flag bearer of the College flag was Qasim Ejaz (3444-Y) and Samrose Nasir (3468-Y) held the six coloured flag representing all Houses.

Haider Ali (3552-Ad) recited verses from the Holy Quran. Subsequently, the Gymnastics Squad led by Murtaza Mehdi (3511-Ad) performed tableaux, back flips, front somersaults, two chain cartwheel, fish diving and horse crossing. The daring gymnasts won hearty applause for their breathtaking performance of two and three pre-cadets jumping through the fire lit rings. The most daring of all was Team Captain Murtaza's jump through four fire lit rings. Next, the Martial Arts Squad led by Sohaib Sadiq (3478-M) displayed their skills in Ninjutsu. Sargodhians are trained in Ninjutsu that is commonly valued as an art of self-improvement. The aim of teaching Ninjutsu here is to teach the students to refrain from all acts of violence. The squad members performed assembly exercises and kata. They also showed their expertise in handling single and double nun-chuks and stick-kata. Then, the 49th, 50th and 51st entries dressed in House coloured vests presented a PT show under the command of Badar ud Din (3663-Ad). Their well-coordinated moves and synchronized formations of a flower, windmill and minaret proved that it's worth going through relentless agony of daily early dawn PT. Next to them, Haseeb Ahmed (3460-I), Talha Tanveer (3606-I), Momin Ali (3578-A) and Husnain (3539-A) maneuvered their aero-models up in the sky performing dog fight, loops and aileron rolls. After that, the College Choir sang the Sargodhians' Song, 'Hum hn Sargodhian...'. Lyrics and the musical composition of the song both were done by College Music Instructor, Mr Ashar Zia.

Thereafter, AVM (R) Qasim Masood Khan, Principal, presented the Annual College Report covering academic, co-curricular and sports achievements of the preceding year. He also conveyed to the parents and guests that the College takes full care to keep its students fully engaged throughout the year in activities pertaining to all three domains of training so that they avail the best of their five year stay here. Finally, it was the turn of the eagerly awaited prize distribution ceremony, the time for the high achievers in different domains of training to reap the fruit of their yearlong perseverance and hard work. Individual prizes were academic excellence, sports colours and merit certificates. Among major trophies, Athletics Trophy, General Service Training Cup and Chigwell Shield were lifted by Alauddin House. Munir House, the last year's Champion House, successfully defended its title, and along with clinching the coveted Quaid-i-Azam Shield also claimed CAS Academics Trophy. The Chief Guest gave away prizes to the worthy recipients. Later in his address, the Chief Guest congratulated the prize winners and appreciated the efforts of the Institution. He advised the young Sargodhians to achieve academic excellence to face the formidable challenges of the times ahead. He further emphasized, "Great leadership is built around personal example, flawless character, sound integrity, intellectual prowess, adherence to merit, and a clear sense of right and wrong. You must build these traits to the highest degree, worthy of setting an example to be emulated by others."

Later, the Chief Guest and other dignitaries visited the Hobbies Club Display set up in the M I Room Lawns. The guests appreciated the creativity of the young hobbyists. At the end, a lunch was served. Efforts of Sqn Ldr Idrees Patni, Sports In-charge, Sqn Ldr Asif Ali, Commentary In-charge and Sqn Ldr Sheraz Wahab Khan, CAO, and their teams are worth appreciation.

ANNUAL JAM COMPETITION

The annual Just a Minute (JAM) Competition comprising the Intra Entry/ Inter House JAM Competition and the Grand Finale was held from 21 January to 2 February, 2019. The competition is an adaptation of BBC Radio 4 'Just A Minute' television panel programme. It was added to College Inter House Competitions last year with an aim to hone the speaking skills of the pre-cadets. The contestants had to speak on a given subject without hesitation, repetition or deviation for one minute for both phases of the competition. Along with the usual JAM Competition, the panelists also had to speak on a given topic for a minute without being interrupted. The rules of the game for the College were formulated and finalized by Wg Cdr Shamila Syed, HoH. She also hosted the contest and handled responsibilities as the senior judge. The other two judges were Sqn Ldr Azra Malik, HoD English and Sqn Ldr Rehana Alam.

Anees (3780-A), Huzaifa Bin Naeem (3760-Y), Arham Ullah (3629-Ad), Ali Abbas (3525-I) and Sirabeel Raza (8226-I) were the best in their respective entries. Munir House lifted the JAM trophy for the second consecutive year, and Iqbal House was the runner up. In the Grand Finale, the entry toppers competed against one another. Sirabeel Raza (8226-I) proved himself worthy of the coveted title of the JAM King for the year 2018-19. AVM (R) Qasim Masood Khan, Principal, appreciated the organizing team of the competition. He also appreciated efforts of the various House administrations in the selection of the panelists. At the end, he gave away prizes to the winners, JAM Crown to Sirabeel Raza and JAM trophy to the eloquent Munirites.

RAFIQUIANS MAKE HAT-TRICK IN QUIZ

Quiz Competitions are instrumental in enhancing mental resilience and self-reliance. To ensure the same, the Pak Studies Department holds written General Knowledge Tests once each term and an annual Inter House Oral Quiz Competition. Individual prizes are awarded to the winners of the Oral Quiz Competition, whereas the House positions depend on the overall performance both in the General Knowledge Tests and Oral Quiz. The Oral Quiz Competition this year was held on 28 January, 2019.

In junior category, Hassan Malik (3624-Ad) won the title of the junior quiz master. Muhammad Hassan (3688-Y) was second, and Shaheer Ahmed (3716-M) stood third. Ashal Akhtar (3472-A) and Ali Abbas (3525-I) got second and third positions in the senior category, respectively. Hamza Ameer (3566-Ad) clinched the title of the senior quiz master for the year 2018-19. The scholarly Rafiquians lifted the overall Quiz Competition Trophy for the third consecutive time, and the Alamites were the runners up. AVM (R) Qasim Masood Khan, Principal, congratulated all the winners and gave away prizes to the worthy recipients.
